

It looks like another racing season is upon us here at the San Diego Homing Pigeon Club, and wow have things changed this past year. We decided to split from the 395 and join the up start Southern California Invitational Combine (SCIC), we went from 25 to 50 bird limits, and elected new officers. With Wayne and Milo stepping down as race secretary we've been forced to scramble and fill the void. Before I go any further I would like to thank Wayne and Milo on behalf of the club for all your years of service. But don't worry guys the dynamic duo of Alan and Shawn have stepped up to fill the void with the help of the coach himself Steve Miner.

With our first race officially in the books, we can now crown our first winner of the season in Sam Fikhman (Mt. Helix Loft) aka the Russian. The man located on heavenly way must have had some help from above as he pulled out the victory by 5 seconds over the twosome of Shawn and Tony. Sam won the race with 2016 MHL 334 a blue bar splash hen. 334 clocked in the points 4 times last year and was 1st to his loft on 4 separate races. 334 is down from two Mike Ganus birds, so you know the lineage is there.

Just 5 seconds off the lead bird was Shawn and Tony of Mesopotamia loft. They had the 3rd and 4th bird in the clock and were the 2nd loft overall. When pressed for some info about their 3rd place bird they had this to say "She's a small dark check hen with yellow eyes called Speedy."

Coming in as the 3rd loft and 12th place overall was the old and unreliable Steve Miner of Van Gruen Loft. Is he coaching or is flying? We don't know. This might be the year where he puts coaching on the backburner and chases that title of Champion Loft. If it is boy did this man start the season off right. His first 2 birds were nestmate brothers down from proven blood. The sire to ARPU 101468 and 101469 in line breed Van Loon. The Van Loon blood continues to win in the San Diego area going all the way back to the days of Ron Steinbrenner of 7-11 loft. The dam is Miss Zip 4th ace pigeon in the club back in 2011. Miss Zip is a granddaughter of The Phantom and was 1st drop in 6 different races for Van Gruen Loft.
