

2019 Old Bird Season

---

Castaic Lake

259 Birds, 14 Lofts

Welcome back to another exciting season of pigeon racing. It's been a tough month for us pigeon flyers having to deal with switching race courses at the last minute and bad weather on top of that. We've lost a lot of birds along the way but for those who had birds that were tough enough to make it through training congratulations its pigeon racing time.

Starting off where he left off last year is Sam Fikhman of Mt. Helix Loft. Sam had 3 birds on the drop, with 11 birds in the points. The first bird through the trap was 2018 MHL 582 a blue bar splash hen known as Little Alan. Just like the flyer Little Alan showed her smarts and determination by not only beating the flyers down here in San Diego, but the South Combine as well. Little Alan is out of two ganus birds purchased by Sam. The father is inbred Golden Mattens and the mother is down from Super 46 and Ornat. Congrats on the win Sam. We would like to give an honorable mention to the new guys this year Eric, Gus, and Sam. We know you guys all had a tough week to start your racing careers but remember you could always do worse well one of you can't.
