

2019 Old Bird Season

Gila Bend, 250 miles

241 Birds, 10 Lofts

Wow what a tough race. You would think 250 miles shouldn't be a problem, but when facing head winds over 20 mph you better think again. In total there was only 28 day birds in the club. After a tough week and the weather looking the same next week we've decided to skip a week.

After knocking on the door the past few weeks Sam finally pushed through for his second win of the season. Sam had a great race with 3 birds on the drop and 11 birds on the day. The first bird through the trap was 2018 MHL 617 a blue bar cock named John's The Best. John's The Best is a full brother to Little Alan who won our first race of the season from Castaic Lake. The father to these birds is an inbred Golden Mattens bird and a hen down from Ornat. These birds win from the North and the East. Can they do it from the South? Congrats on a great race Sam and congrats to all the guys with birds on the day.

Bye Until Next Week
