

2019 Old Bird Season

Welton, 190 miles

245 Birds, 10 Lofts

Another week another race. Lernel once again showed off his singing and dancing talets for us on shipping night. Watch out guys he has the skill set for American Idol. We had another good race this week with speeds in the low 1400s and high 1300s ypm.

The kid is back again. After hanging around the top 10 that past few weeks Alan of Lulus Loft was finally able to break through and take 1st through 4th. With good training, a little monkey chow and some of that secret sauce Lulu got the victory with 4 birds on the drop. The first bird through the trap was 2018 SD 768 a blue bar hen that goes by You Can't Squeeze Me. The Russian didn't handle Lulus birds on shipping night, could it be a coincidence? Maybe, lets ask Gus and Steve. The mother to You Can't Squeeze Me is the MVI Hen. The MVI Hen was given to Alan as a baby by John Timmerman. The MVI hen won two diplomas for lulu and went on to become a prolific breeder for lulu.

Bye Until Next Week
