

2019 Old Bird Season

Winterhaven, 120 miles

313 Birds, 10 Lofts

Finally, two consecutive races on the same course, and it only took us the end of March to get there. It's been a wacky season, but it finally seems like we have settled down and can now get our birds in a routine.

What are the odds of winning two in a row? 1 out of 10 you say. Yes, that's correct John's wins again!! Not only did he win, but he won by over a minute from 120 miles. This guy is on fire, he must be getting help from above. John won with 2017 COM 2960 a blue bar cock named Deuce Muchos. COM 2960 got lost from Calexico during the 2017 Triple Crown, and as a result was given to John to fly during old birds. Deuce Muchos is owned by the partnership of Tenaya and Alex. John didn't think much of Deuce Muchos leading up to the race as we was more interested in his hen then flying. Great job John, but can you do it three weeks in a row?

Bye Until Next Week
